She took the veil as a girl of 13 in the monastery of the Sisters of our Order at Beaulieu in the diocese of Cahors, where she devoted herself to tending the poor and the sick in the hospital attached to the monastery. Attractions and temptations she sublimated in the love of God and even in mystical experiences. She had a special devotion to Christ Crucified, Our Lady of the Annunciation and St John the Baptist. She died in 1347 and her relics are in the church at Issendolus, also in the diocese of Cahors.  Common of a Religious Prayer: Almighty and merciful God, who wished Blessed Fleur to love and live as a virgin

(**Blessed Gerland, Religious O.N.)

It is not known for certain whether he came from Poland or from Germany, but he was certainly a Knight of the Order of St John of Jerusalem. At the time of Frederick II he served in a little church at Caltagirone in Sicily, caring for widows and orphans devoted, and without thought for himself. He died about 1271 and is still honoured at Caltagirone, where his relics are venerated in the Basilica of San Giacomo.

Common of a Religious

Prayer:

Lord God,

Who brought Blessed Gerland from the north to Sicily,
and inspired him to wear a hair shirt

in place of the armour of the knights of our Order, arouse in us a zeal like his

so that our lives may always aim at perfection.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God for ever and ever.
